DELAWARE

THE Town of Delaware is situated in Kan-sus territory, on the south side of the Mis-souri river, three miles above the line of the Delaware reserve, and ten miles below Leavenworth city. This town was laid off and located in February last, on a tract of land densely timbered, easy of access from the surrounding country and situated favorably for health: al-ready there are a number of houses going up. It has the following resources as a good and promisent rounds.

Firstly—A Good Landing.

The Missouri river at this point is compressed within a narrow space, the channel is remarkably deep on the Delaware side, and washes for a mile above and below, the Kansas shore. thus affording at all times a safe and secure landing for steamers.

Secondly—Timber in Abundance
The tract of land on which the town is laid out, is covered with valuable timber, for building purposes, besides this, there is on the oppo-site side of the river a large bottom, heavily timbered with oak, ash and walnut.

Thirdly-Its Position.
This town has on the Kansas side of the rive or supporting it, a large district of the very best lands in the Territory, while on the opposite side of the river there is a large and fertile betlands in the Territory, the side of the river there is a large and fertile bettom, teeming with population. This bottom is of itself sufficient to sustain a town of large of itself sufficient to sustain a town of large size. This is the most accessible point from which the Delaware nation of Indians can procure their supplies. Delaware is the nearest and most accessible point at which the country on the Kansas river can do their receiving and forwarding business. There are a great number of towns on the Kansas that will find it to their interest to make this place their shipping point, among them we would name Osawkee, point, among them we would name Osawkee.
